We Accept:

Authorization Sheet

This sheet must be signed and returned with your order form.

**All Guns must be disassembled prior to shipping to Carolina Camo Dip. We will not disassemble your gun for you. If you ship it to us put together we will return it to you at your cost.

**DO NOT ship items to us that are not to be dipped. DO NOT send any firing parts or internal parts of any gun to us. To avoid extra fees, please make sure your item is free of any residue or stickers prior to shipment. If there has been tape, paint or any other adhesive or rubberized coating applied to the item, we will charge a pre treatment fee for removal.

**Complete guns do not include trigger guards, floor plates, bolts or ram rods. These items can be dipped for an additional $20.00 each. These items will not be warranted.

**Scopes will be fully submerged into water and NO WARRANTY will be given. Please be sure your item is waterproof before shipping it to us. We do not offer a warranty for damage done to an item that can not be submerged into water.

Shipping Instructions:

- Pack your items using newspaper or bubble wrap.
- If you are shipping a firearm make sure any serial numbered receiver is not included.
- Wrap each item separately.
- Once your item is dipped we will call you to verify the return shipping amount and your credit card will be charged.
- In every event, we try our best to ship items back to you in the same package. So the return shipping cost is usually the same as it cost for you to ship the item to us.
- Carolina Camo Dip cannot be responsible for your item during shipping either way, therefore we strongly suggest to ship it by UPS and pay for insurance in the event your item is lost or damaged in transit.
